WALTERS-CLAYTON.

Married, at the Methodist church Wednesday evening, June 15th, Mr. G. Ab. Walters and Miss Willie B. Clayton; Rev. J. M. Alexander officiating. Previous to the appointed hour the church was well filled with friends and acquaintances of the couple about to take the important steps, at the hour fixed the organ, manipulated by the skilled fingers of Miss Julia Duggan pealed forth the Grand Wedding March, at the same time the attendants Mr. C. H. Biggs and Miss Mayne Dofflemeyer, Mr. T. A. Murray and Miss Mary Bailey entered and took their positions. Then came Mr. Walters and Miss Clayton and gracefully took their places before the hymenal altar where the two hearts were made as one. After the usual ceremonies and congratulations the three couples and many of their friends repaired to the very hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Bailey's where they were highly entertained. The young couple have many friends who join in extending congratulations and well wishes. And the News trusts that they may prosper may go hand in hand through the trials and tribulations of this life ever triumphantly surmounting any and all obstacles and that the gates of heaven may be opened to them when this life is over.

Mrs R. G. Murray returned last Friday from Sherman bringing with her Misses Alice Murray and Armour Longley who have been attending school at that place.

ATTENTION!!

AT LAST IT HAS COME!!

The fulcrum fixed, the lever leveled and the pry applied. Now all grant together and we will rise or something break. Next Tuesday, June 14th at 4 o'clock p m there will be a meeting at Recter & Kelley's office of any and all citizens interested in themselves, their town or their county. Business that will interest the merchants, the lawyers, the grocers, the stock men, the cotton and the woolgrowers or that transact any business in this county will come before this meeting. It will not cost you one cent but may save you many. This is the right step in the right direction and every person interested in any way whatever should be present. Remember the time! Remember the place! Tell your neighbor about it and all come together. Yes, come! every one of you.

Mr McWhorter, cattle buyer, will be here on June 24 and 25 to receive cattle. He wants ones and twos and will pay $6 and $9. He wants 1000 head and will receive at pens on Brownwood road about six miles north of town.

$3.00 PER DAY.

I will be at San Saba Friday and Saturday, June 16th and 17th, representing C. E. Speth of Brownwood, and will employ agents at the above salary. Call on me at the Dofflemeyer House.

B. Reagan.

All unite in the meeting next Tuesday, pull together and it will do us more good than all this wrangling about governors, presidents and silver planks.

Don't forget that we need a little money on subscription now and then.

Build a good road from here to Llano and give us a good outlet that way.

Spectacles! We are sole agents for the justly celebrated Sapphire Lenses. We also carry a good stock of pure white Crystal and pebble glasses - a special line for young people just commencing use of glasses. Satisfaction guaranteed. KETCHUM & MONTGOMERY.

Mr. J. H. Martin and family came home from Austin via Llano last Wednesday.

The candidates will have a chance to open fire at the Alliance Encampment July 2nd. Load and be ready.

L. W. Rector returned from Austin last Wednesday.

Last Wednesday Mr W. L. Banister happened to quite an accident. He had loaded his wagons with wool and started to Llano, when about half a mile from home the wagon he was on turned over. Banister jumped but missed his footing and fell thereby inflicting painful but not serious wounds on his face and head. At last accounts he was resting well.

The road is open to Llano and the trade is beginning to turn that way.

The loves above and below New Orleans have broken, and there is great fear of severe loss in the country surrounding the banks.

Grand Encampment and Barbecue.

On June the 30th, July the 1st and 2nd, six miles west of San Saba on the north side of the San Saba river, the Alliance Encampment is to be held, and every body is invited to attend. On the 3rd day, July the 2nd, a grand barbecue is to be given and good speakers are expected who will represent the interests of the "Third or Peoples Party," and an invitation is extended to any other political party to have their ablest men there well loaded, and they shall have an equal showing to present their claims. Come one and all, and let's have a good time and hear all sides of the great question so much agitating the minds of the people. All rights to erect refreshment or amusement stands of any kind are reserved and will be let to the best bidder on June 20th at the grounds.

J. B. Graham.

Per the com.

Prof. E. L. Hagan, principal of Ballinger High School arrived in San Saba on a visit to his brother. He will remain a few days and then visit his old home in Ky. and return to take charge of Ballinger High School to which he has been elected the third time. The people of Ballinger are a progressive people, and therefore show their appreciation of Prof. Hagan who is an able and progressive teacher.

The Board of Equalization is in session.

Died, Friday June 11, at his residence, John W. Biggs, aged 62. He has been for some considerable time afflicted with partial paralysis, but bore his sufferings with pure christian patience, and last Friday quietly breathed his last. His remains were interred at the I O O F cemetery, with Masonic ceremonies, he having been a member of that lodge during a great part of his life. He was born in Georgia in 1830, joined the Methodist Church about 40 years ago, has been a member ever since, and died in the full enjoyment of that religion which he imbibed in his early manhood. He leaves a wife and seven children, besides many relatives and friends to mourn his death, all of whom would unite in saying "May his soul rest in peace."

W. J. Burleson, aged about 50, of the Richland Springs neighborhood, was bitten on the hand by a snake last week and died within a few hours.

Accidents Make Cripples.

So does Rheumatism, and after a time it kills, too. Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedy relieves the pain at once, and is warranted to cure. One bottle, price $5. Is enough for any ordinary case. If you cannot get it from your druggist, write to the Drummond Medicine Co., 45-50 Mulford Lane, New York. Agents wanted.

Rev. Joe Harding of Ballinger, is conducting a meeting at the Christian Church at this place.

The colored population will celebrate emancipation day on Saturday June 18th, with a barbecue, to which all are invited. Separate tables for white people.

Messrs G. S. Gray, delegate, and C. A. Jamison took in the convention at Lampasas last week.

Misses Ida and Minnie Hall who have been attending school at Waco passed through town last Friday on the way to their home in the Richland Springs neighborhood.

There are some in this town who have said many unkind things about this scribe and his business affairs. True we may not be as good as they, and may not float in as high circles of society as they, but we are satisfied with our own lot, and we only ask that these individuals will let us alone.

Mrs. R. A. Hall of Ballinger is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Baker.

Those owing for tuition are requested to settle.

Trim up your stock, sell off the scrub and prepare to winter only good, thrifty stock.

ARRIVALS.

At THE DOFFLEMEYER HOUSE.
